

Suggested Prayer for Sunday, May 21, 2023

Almighty God and Loving Father,

On this Sunday, as we commemorate the Convocation of Sessions of 1973, where the PCA was born, we give you praise for the faithful ruling and teaching elders you have raised up to serve your Church who were and are true to the Bible, the Reformed faith, and obedient to the Great Commission. We give thanks for our session and ask you to grant them wisdom and faithfulness in their leadership.

Grant, O Lord, that we remain committed to the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, which are a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. We affirm that the Bible alone is the verbally inspired word of God. It is our only rule of faith and practice.

Give us a fresh commitment to the Great Commission. May we be diligent in making disciples, in baptizing our children and unbaptized believers, and in teaching them to obey all that Christ commands us. Lead us as we seek to make known to everyone God's saving grace. Give us the willingness to be a church that is Reformed and earnestly evangelical as we engage our Jerusalem, Samaria, and the world for the advancement of your kingdom and your renown.

We pray this for the glory of God alone, as we wait for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
